In November 2012 the Solano Community College District ("District") successfully passed the Measure Q Bond in an effort to be responsive to the needs of students and the community. The funding approved by this bond is planned for new building construction, modernization and repairs to existing classrooms and college buildings to bring them up to current seismic and safety standards. One of the main goals of the Measure Q Bond is to provide additional classrooms and science labs for the District to provide enhanced educational programs including job training, and workforce development courses to their students.

In order to implement the projects identified, the District is seeking proposals from qualified Fixtures, Furniture, and Equipment (FF&E) consultants to provide program level FF&E Services and project level FF&E services for three building projects slated to be built under the Measure Q Bond Program. Services provided by FF&E consultant will be as defined in the attached Exhibit “A” – DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES TO BE PERFORMED BY CONSULTANT found at the end of the Attachment “1” - INDEPENDENT CONSULTANT AGREEMENT FOR PROFESSIONAL SERVICES, and as generally recommended in the Solano Community College District 2013 Facilities Master Plan, the results of which will be utilized on all future Capital Improvement Programs within the District.

BACKGROUND
The Solano Community College District ("District") is a community college serving students of all ages from Solano County and the wider Bay Area. Since 1945, when the school was founded as Vallejo Junior College, the college has helped students gain the skills necessary to transfer to four year universities, train for new careers and advance in their jobs, learn basic skills and enjoy the benefits of lifelong learning. The District moved to the main campus in Fairfield in the early 1970s, and recently constructed “centers” in Vallejo and Vacaville. Classes are also held at Travis Air Force Base and the Nut Tree Airport. The previous bond, Measure G, passed in 2000 and will conclude in December 2014. The $348M Measure Q bond passed in November 2012 and is expected to run for 15+ years.

The District is seeking proposals in response to this RFQ/P from qualified consultants to provide program level FF&E services and project specific FF&E services for three projects within the District. This RFQ/P defines the services sought by the District and generally outlines the requirements for the proposal.

The District makes no representation that participation in the RFQ/P process will lead to an award of contract or any consideration whatsoever. The District shall in no event be responsible for the cost of preparing any proposal in response to this RFQ/P. The awarding of contracts for specific design services, if at all, is at the sole discretion of the District.
