

2017-2018
CUSTOM VERIFICATION
FORM

Office of Financial Aid

Your application was selected for verification. In this process, the SCC Financial Aid Office will compare information from your FAFSA with your 2015 IRS tax information. The law allows the college to request this information before awarding federal aid. If there is conflicting information between your FAFSA and any of your verification documents, the college will make an electronic correction to your FAFSA application.

Complete this verification form and submit it to the SCC Financial Aid Office as soon as possible. Your financial aid application cannot be processed without this information.
