SOCIAL JUSTICE STUDIES

- In 2015 a TMC for an Area of Emphasis in Social Justice Studies was approved by the state to create a viable pathway from California Community Colleges to California State University campuses based on Ethnic Studies, Gender Studies, and other related programs. In addition to keeping with the mandate for community colleges to create ADTs in every major, the creation of an AA-T in Social Justice Studies would afford students a clearer, more secure pathway to admittance at a CSU at junior level standing in the academic areas identified in the TMC, as well as other programs that share common coursework for major preparation.
- The greater opportunities afforded by an ADT degree will benefit students interested in Social Justice and Ethnic Studies, as well as those interested in focusing on Gender and Sexuality Studies, a disciplinary focus not previously available at Solano Community College.
