Areas of Emphasis Solano Community College

Proposed Outcomes:

- To share development process to date, including how course sequence mapping informs current work;
- To introduce proposed Areas of Emphasis at SCC;
- To share how Areas of Emphasis will inform student access to programs;
- To solicit discipline feedback on Areas of Emphasis, placement of programs in Areas, questions associated with Areas, and planning for student experience
- As time allows, to respond to immediate questions and feedback, including the revisiting of details, as needed

Reminders: Work to Date: GP & Course Sequencing

- Analysis of current data trends of students in their first-year at SCC, as well as how these data points relate to Guided Pathways, First-Year Experience (FYE), and the Funding Formula
- Submission of Program Maps for Associate Degrees for Transfer (ADTs) and some CTE Programs
- Analysis for duplicative or similar recommended sequences for submitted programs with emphasis on the first year—
 - To develop draft templates for FYE
 - To draft Areas of Emphasis at SCC based on faculty input on recommended course sequencing

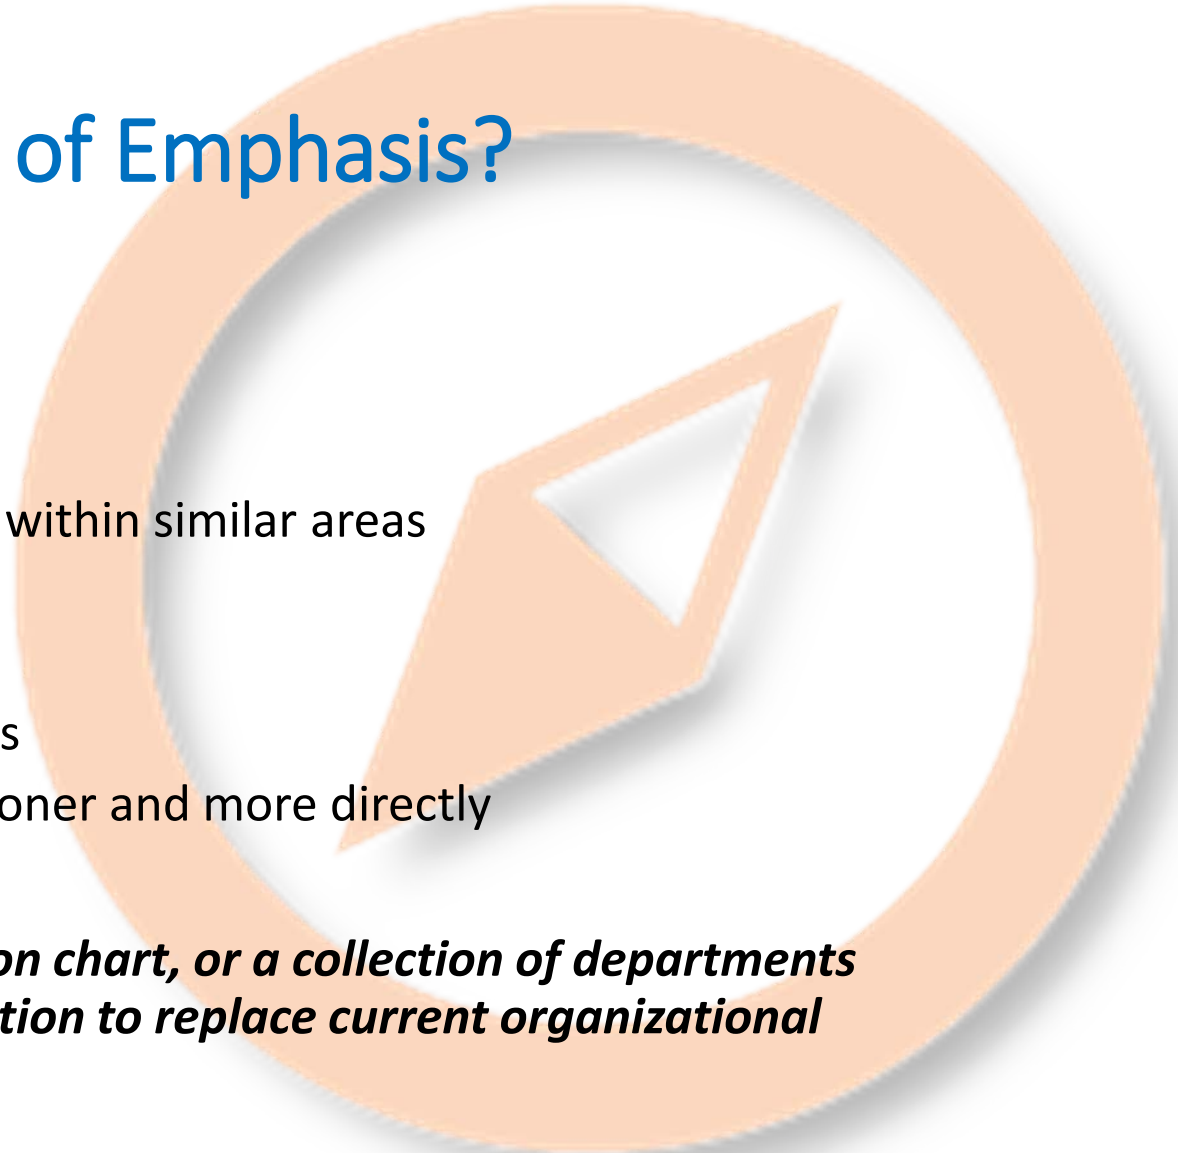

Reminders: What Is an Area of Emphasis?

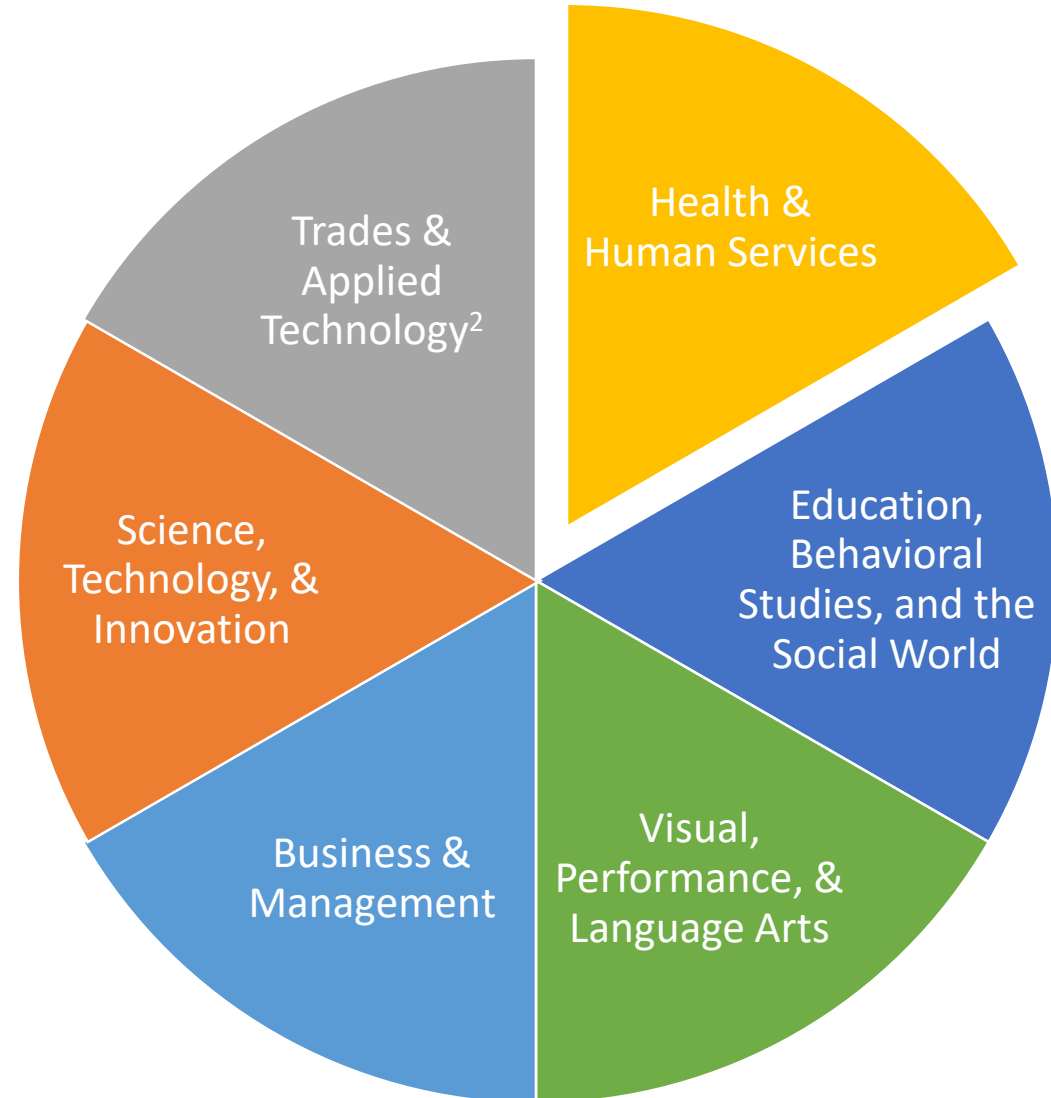

Areas of Emphasis/Metamajors may/can be:

- A cluster of programs based on principles
- A grouping that allows students to explore within similar areas
- Programs with similar math requirements
- Areas with similar employment areas
- Areas of study based on similar motivations
- A tool to help students meet their goals sooner and more directly

Areas of Emphasis are not an academic organization chart, or a collection of departments based on organizational structure, nor is their function to replace current organizational structures (e.g. Divisions/Schools).

Leads to numerous professional degrees, including MD, OD, DDS, & Dpharm.
Degrees in the field of biotechnology.

Is English and Math required? If so, which Math?

The student is able to use Guided Self-Placement tools based on the program requirements.

For example—

--Biology requires Math 020.

--The student may enroll in Math 020,

--or the student may enroll in a transfer-level course to prepare for Math 020,

--with or without its co-requisite.

Do I want to be a full-time student? Do I want to be part of a cohort program? What other opportunities are available to a student like me?

--In the first academic year?

--To complete my program?

And...when are these courses offered?

For example,--

The Course Sequence for Biology suggests the following sequence (assuming program-ready, FT student)

--CHEM 001 & 001L [5 units]

--MATH 020 [5 units]

--ENGLI 001 [4 units]

--LR 010 [1 unit]

--BIO 101 (if FYE Cohort) [.5 units]

[15 or 15.5 units]

IMPORTANT TRANSFER INFORMATION

UC Pathway for Biology

If you're working on an Associate Degree for Transfer (ADT) in biology with the goal of applying to CSU as well as UC, there's a lot of overlap in coursework. Here's what you need to know about the differences between what UC expects and what CSU requires for biology transfer students:

- The UC pathway expects organic chemistry to be completed at the CCC; CSU doesn't.
- CSU requires physics; the UC pathway doesn't. However, some UC programs will require one year of calculus-based physics with lab before graduation from UC. To fulfill the physics requirement for both CSU and UC, take calculus-based physics, not trigonometry-based physics. Please consult with a counselor.
