Resolution 05.08.2023: In Support of Grading Best Practices

WHEREAS, multiple research studies and academic organizations, including the American Association for Higher Education, have long identified prompt grading as a “best practice” because “students need frequent opportunities to perform and receive suggestions for improvement”;

WHEREAS, timely grading is an important aspect of the student-teacher relationship and can do much to support or impede student success;

WHEREAS, the Associated Students of Solano College have asked faculty to commit to timely grading;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that Solano Community College faculty commit to grading assignments in a timely fashion, to be defined by departments;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that faculty post their grading turnaround time clearly in their syllabus;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Solano Community College Faculty Senate continue to support professional development and resources that support timely and effective grading practices.
