April 2014

April 22, 2014—44th Anniversary

Earth Day is a day designed to inspire awareness and appreciation for the Earth's environment. Solano College will celebrate Earth Day with an event that will include many vendors. See flyer. →

Clubs are invited to come out and have a fundraiser or information table keeping with the theme of "sustainability." Several clubs, including Campus Cats, are already planning to take part in this event. Contact Ken.Williams@solano.edu

3rd Annual Earth Day Event

Sponsored by SCC's Sustainability Advisory Committee

This is a rain or shine event.
In case of rain, we will in the back half of the cafeteria.

Tuesday, April 22, 2014

10:00 am to 1:00 pm

Student Union Quad, outside Bldg. 1400

This event is to help everyone understand the importance of our Earth and how we can better serve it by reducing, recycling, reusing, replenishing & respecting our resources. There will be hands on activities, free giveaways, art contest, lots & lots of information.

For more information:

Sustainability@Solano.edu or Call Sandra Diehl 707.486.0179

From the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office:

Despite recent rainfall, California is facing severe water shortfalls in the driest year in recorded state history. Governor Edmund G. Brown, Jr. has proclaimed a State of Emergency and directed state officials to take all necessary actions to prepare for these drought conditions.

As part of that emergency proclamation, a statewide water conservation campaign has been established to make all Californians aware of the drought and encourage personal actions to reduce water usage by 20 percent.

Did you know that.....

Solano College has a partnership with Sonoma State?
Would you like to earn a B.A. in Liberal Studies?

Sonoma State University offers an upper-division program in Vallejo, California leading to a Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies. The Liberal Studies Solano program offers a wide variety of courses from the social sciences, humanities, and natural sciences while providing a flexible major through which students may also take courses in other areas of interest. Like more traditional liberal arts majors, the Liberal Studies Solano major is excellent preparation for students interested in a career in teaching or counseling, the legal profession, or business as well as graduate work in the social sciences and the humanities.

Please attend this last informational session.

Trio Seven –Saturday, April 5th

Former SCC Music Student Matthew Foley joins Trio Seven for a concert at SCC.

While attending SCC, Matthew took music theory classes as well as appreciation, multicultural music in America, and guitar classes. He is currently finishing up a Bachelor of Music degree in guitar at Cal State Sacramento, teaches private lessons at his home in Fairfield and guitar classes at the Young Artists Conservatory in Vacaville.

This concert season Trio Seven will perform its all new transcription of Mussorgsky’s beloved piano work, Pictures at an Exhibition (1874). In it Mussorgsky imagines a posthumous exhibition of his friend, artist Victor Hartmann, who died suddenly of an aneurysm at the age of 39. It is composed of ten pictures, representing paintings, sketches, and architectural concepts by Hartmann, and four promenades, representing Mussorgsky’s moods as he strolls through the exhibit. This transcription for three extended seven-string guitars seeks to combine something of the fullness and power of the piano with the intimacy and guttural quality of the guitar.

The program will also include popular movie themes and works by Debussy, Bach, Brahms, Gismonti, Grasso, Rachmaninov, and selections of De Falla’s El Amor Brujo.

In its fourth year, Trio Seven continues to innovate with new transcriptions, original works, and extensive proselytization. Its current members are Matthew Grasso, Harry Stoddard, and Matthew Foley. Trio Seven performs throughout Northern California.
