Art - Two-Dimensional

Program Description

Students may select from several studio art programs: Art—Two-Dimensional; Art—Three-Dimensional; Graphic Arts; and Studio Arts for Transfer. Students earning an Associates Degree in Art—Two-Dimensional will also qualify for the Studio Arts for Transfer Degree (AA-T). However, the Art—Two-Dimensional degree is more rigorous than the AA-T degree, and provides a deeper foundation for student artists. These programs are designed to develop visual skills in a variety of art media.

Associate in Arts Degree

The Associate in Arts Degree can be obtained upon completion of 60 units, including the courses in the major for Art—Two-Dimensional general education requirements, and electives. All courses in the major must be completed with a grade of C or better or a P if the course is taken on a Pass/No Pass basis.

Program Outcomes

Students who complete the Art Two-Dimensional Associate Degree will be able to:

1. Analyze, apply and integrate diverse visual experiences.
2. Develop and articulate with proficiency an understanding of visual and multi-cultural literacy.
3. Work independently and cooperatively to solve creative problems, applying critical thinking skills.

Students must complete courses in all of the following components according to the listed requirements in each.

Associate in Arts in Art History for Transfer

Program Description

This program provides the academic and practical experience to prepare students for a career, or further education at a four-year institution, in art history and related fields, such as museum studies, art education and administration. The Associate in Arts in Art History for Transfer provides the academic and practical experience to transfer into the CSU system to complete a baccalaureate degree that will prepare students for a career in the Art History industry. The Associate in Arts in Art History for Transfer degree is especially designed for students who plan to complete a bachelor's degree in Art History at a CSU campus.

Associate in Arts in Art History for Transfer

The Associate in Arts in Art History for Transfer degree is especially designed for students who plan to complete a bachelor's degree in Art History at a CSU campus. Students completing an Associate in Arts in Art History for Transfer degree are guaranteed admission to the CSU system, but not to a particular campus or major. Students transferring to a CSU campus that accepts the Associate in Arts in Art History for Transfer degree will be required to complete no more than 60 units after transfer to earn a bachelor's degree. Associate in Arts in Art History for Transfer degree also prepares students for art history degree programs at CSU institutions, but does not come with the same guarantees. In all cases, students should consult with a counselor for more information on university admission and transfer requirements.

To earn the Associate in Arts in Art History for Transfer degree, students must:

1. Complete 60 semester units that are eligible for transfer to the California State University, including both of the following:
 - a. The Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) or the California State University General Education – Breadth Requirements
 - b. A minimum of 18 semester units in a major or area of emphasis, as determined by the community college district.
2. Obtain a minimum grade point average of 2.0.

Program Outcomes

Students who complete the Associate in Arts in Art History for Transfer degree will be able to:

1. Analyze, apply and integrate diverse visual experiences.
2. Develop and articulate with proficiency an understanding of visual and multi-cultural literacy.
3. Work independently and cooperatively to solve creative problems, applying critical thinking skills.
