

SOLANO COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

COMMUNITY SERVICE CLASSES

1100

POLICY: The Solano Community College District Governing Board may, without the approval of the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, establish and maintain community service classes in civic, vocational, literacy, health, homemaking, technical and general education, including, but not limited to, classes in the fields of visual and performing arts, handicraft, science, literature, nature study, nature contacting, aquatic sports, and athletics. These classes shall be designed to provide instruction and to contribute to the physical, mental, moral, economic, or civic development of the individuals or groups enrolled therein.

Community Service classes shall be open for the admission of adults and of those minors as in the judgment of the Solano Community College District may profit therefrom.

The Solano Community College District shall not expend general fund monies to establish and maintain community service classes. The Solano Community College District may charge students enrolled in community service classes a fee not to exceed the cost of maintaining community service classes, or may provide instruction in community service classes for remuneration by contract, or with contributions or donations of individuals or groups. The Solano Community College District shall adopt guidelines defining the acceptable reimbursable costs for which a fee may be charged and shall collect data and maintain uniform accounting procedures to ensure that general fund monies are not used for community services classes.
