

SOLANO COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

REMEDIAL COURSEWORK LIMIT

6025

PROCEDURES

Remedial coursework refers to precollegiate basic skills courses.

A student's needs for remedial coursework shall be determined using appropriate assessment instruments, methods, or procedures. No student shall receive more than 30 semester units of credit for remedial coursework. Students having exhausted the unit limitation shall be referred to appropriate adult noncredit education services provided by college, adult school, community-based organization, or other appropriate local provider with which the district has an established referral agreement.

Students enrolled in one or more courses of English as a Second Language (ESL) and students identified by the District as having a learning disability are exempt from the limitations of this procedure.

Students who shows significant, measurable progress toward the development of skills appropriate to his or her enrollment in college-level courses may be granted a waiver of the limitations of this procedure.

A student who does not attain full eligibility status for college-level work within the limits described shall, unless provided with a waiver, be dismissed and referred to adult non-credit education courses.

A student who successfully completes remedial coursework or who demonstrates skills levels which will reasonably assure success in college-level courses, request reinstatement to proceed with college-level coursework.

The Solano Community College catalog shall include a clear statement of the limited applicability of the remedial coursework toward fulfilling degree requirements and any exemptions that may apply to this limitation.
