

BREAK THE SILENCE

THE CLOTHESLINE PROJECT

The Clothesline Project is a collection of T-shirts created by survivors of violence, their family or friends. The goal of the Clothesline Project is to educate the public about the extent, prevalence and the impact of violence against women. Each T-shirt is decorated to represent each person's experience.

Stop by and decorate a shirt for our Clothesline

Tuesday, April 10 in the lobby of Bldg. # 1400
at the Fairfield Campus

Tuesday, April 17 in the lobby of Vallejo Campus at 545 Columbus Pkwy Vallejo

Tuesday, April 24 in the lobby of the Vacaville Campus at 2001 N. Village Pkwy Vacaville

Solano College Student Health Center 707/864-7163

Approved by ASSC