

STAYING COMMITTED AND CONNECTED
2017

NOVEMBER 13,

More Good News from Speech & Debate Team

Join me in congratulating your Solano College Speech and Debate team for another successful tournament. On November 3 - 5, the Solano speech and debate team competed at two tournaments at San Joaquin Community College and University of the Pacific. These two tournaments represent the biggest tournament weekend of the semester with over 200 combined entries.

"I am proud to announce that we placed 3rd place overall in the community college division," said Douglas Mungin. "Special thanks go to our hardworking team and coaches."

The next tournament will be December 1 - 3 at Moorpark College. If you are interested in seeing your speech and debate team in action please come to Speech Night on Tuesday November 28 at the Fairfield campus in the back half of the cafeteria in 1400 Building at 4pm and 6:30pm. We have added an additional showcase at the Vacaville campus on Wednesday, November 29 in room 133 at 3:30pm. The cost is $10 but free with a speech voucher.

Below is the list of awards from this weekend:
3rd Place Two-Year College Weekend Swing Sweepstakes Award

Mustang Invitational November 3rd
3rd Place Community College Sweepstakes Awards

3rd Place Open Informative - Justin Freeman
3rd Place Novice Extemporaneous Speaking - Ricki Liang
3rd Place Novice Persuasive - Ricki Liang
Finalist Open Informative - Gary Salovino
Finalist Open After Dinner Speaking - Savannah Gable
Finalist Open Prose Interpretation - Andrew Brown
Finalist Open Impromptu Speaking - Andrew Brown
Finalist Program Oral Interpretation - Chloe Mitchell
Finalist Program Oral Interpretation - Savannah Gamble

Paul Winters Invitational November 4th – 5th

3rd Place Two-Year College Sweepstakes Award
1st Place Novice Informative Speaking - Liselle Palacios
2nd Place Novice Extemporaneous Speaking - Ricki Liang
3rd Place Open Communication Analysis - Samantha Lee Silva
3rd Place Open Prose Interpretation - Justin Freeman
3rd Place Open After Dinner Speaking - Samantha Lee Silva
Quarterfinalist Novice Parliamentary Debate - Michael Rearden
Finalist Novice Prose Interpretation - Liselle Palacios
Finalist Novice Impromptu - Tyre Ramot
Finalist Open Persuasive Speaking - Marin Spalding
Top Non-advancing Novice After Dinner Speaking - Tyre Ramot
Top Non-advancing Novice Dramatic Interpretation - Stephanie Shatell
Top Non-advancing Novice Persuasive Speaking - Ricki Liang
Others competing- Radmher Nowroozi

---

Falcons Reach Finals in Ball in the Fall Tournament

The SCC Falcons took on three colleges last week as part of the Ball in the Fall Tournament. Thursday evening they took on Skyline with a win and Friday, the Falcons challenged American River College with a 69-59 win reaching the finals.

On Saturday, the team took on the Sacramento City College Panthers, but unfortunately lost the game.

See article in the Daily Republic.

Softball Team Doing Well In Division I Program

Congratulations to the SCC softball team who pulled off an incredible win against a Division I program, boosting a ton of confidence for our Lady Falcons!

The final score was 10-7 in 8 innings, against a very competitive Division I program.

There is just one fall game left on the schedule. It's at home on November 18 at 2 pm.

Volleyball Team Clinches BVC Title

Congratulations to the SCC Falcons who clinched the Bay Valley Conference regular-season title. It was the 14th straight victory for the team!

Solano College | solano.edu | (707) 864-4000

To submit information to Inside Solano, please email kristie.west@solano.edu