Associate in Arts in English for Transfer (ADT: A.A.-T)

Program Description

The Associate in Arts Degree in English for Transfer (A.A.-T) is for students who intend to complete a bachelor's degree in English at a CSU. Students will take courses in English as well as related fields required for English majors. This program teaches writing, critical thinking, reading, and research skills as they apply to the areas of composition, creative writing, and the analysis of literature. Course work in creative writing is presented in sequenced writing workshops and courses in literary publishing. Course work in literature explores primarily British and American writers through genre, survey, figure, and thematic courses.

Associate in Arts in English for Transfer

Students who complete this 19-unit major will be guaranteed admission with junior status to the California State University system, though not to a particular campus or major. In all cases, students should consult with a counselor for more information on university admission and transfer requirements.

To earn the Associate in Arts in English for Transfer degree, students must:

1. Complete 60 semester units that are eligible for transfer to the California State University system, including both of the following:
 - a. The Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) or the California State University General Education – Breadth Requirements
 - b. A minimum of 18 semester units in a major or area of emphasis, as determined by the community college district.
2. Obtain a minimum grade point average of 2.0.

Program Outcomes

Students who complete an Associate in Arts in English for Transfer will be able to:

1. Demonstrate an ability to compose and communicate using appropriate rhetorical patterns and writing strategies.
2. Demonstrate college-level reading, writing, and analysis skills.
3. Demonstrate an understanding of the importance and influence of literature's study of the human condition in shaping and reflecting intellectual history and cultural identity.
4. Demonstrate, through study and analysis of literature from a variety of cultural or ethnic backgrounds and sexual orientations, an ability to recognize and examine assumptions about difference and social norms and an understanding of how the experience of reading literature from different perspectives can better prepare one for meaningful participation in a diverse global community.
5. Explore and/or demonstrate, through creative writing and/or analytical techniques, the practice and study of diverse literatures and publishing.
