

HumanKind

Workshop Series

Join PTK & AANHPI SAP as we lay the groundwork for a new learning community. In this interactive workshop series we'll explore our shared humanity, relationship to the natural world, and cultivate leadership for creating greater equity, justice, accessibility, and belonging.

Complete all 3 sessions & earn a certificate of completion!

SEPT 30

How is storytelling tied to what it means to be human?
How might it provide a means for transforming it?

3:00-5:00 PM
LR 113 or Zoom

Prof. Maria Isip-Bautista, Ethnic Studies/Sociology
Prof. Michael Wyly, English

OCT 21

What does human biology reveal about our place in the natural world? How have evolution, culture & our relationships w/other living systems shaped what it means to be human?

3:00-5:00 PM
LR 113 or Zoom

Prof. Matthew Schweitzer, Biology

NOV 18

What enables human flourishing, and how do positive psychology, community and cultural practices promote lives of meaning, purpose, and well-being?

3:00-5:00 PM
LR 113 or Zoom

Prof. LaNae Jaimez, Psychology

Register Here:

All are welcome!

Connect With Us:

Accommodations are available to support your participation
Contact sccaanhpi@gmail.com